

The 100 Marriage Assessment

Psychographic Profiles Reference Guide

This guide contains detailed information about all the psychographic profiles used in The 100 Marriage Assessment system. Each profile represents a distinct personality type based on responses to assessment questions about faith, family, finances, and other key areas of marriage expectations.

Use this guide to better understand your own profile and explore potential compatibility with different personality types. Remember that while these profiles provide valuable insights, every relationship is unique and communication remains the most important factor for success.

Psychographic Profiles Reference Guide

This guide provides information about all psychographic profiles in the 100 Marriage Assessment system. Use it to better understand your own profile and potential compatibility with others.

Unisex Profiles

Steadfast Believers

Commitment to faith as the foundation of your relationship. You value traditional marriage roles and have clear expectations for family life. Your decisions are firmly guided by your interpretation of scripture, and you're unwavering in your convictions.

Compatibility: Your strong faith and traditional values mean you'll thrive with someone who shares your spiritual commitment and family focus. Expectation alignment is highest with Steadfast Believers, but Harmonious Planners and Balanced Visionaries can complement your values if faith is discussed.

Harmonious Planners

Thoughtful planning in your relationship while maintaining strong faith values. You're committed to establishing clear expectations and boundaries in your marriage while prioritizing your spiritual foundation.

Compatibility: You value structure and faith, so you'll connect best with partners who share your planning mindset. Harmonious Planners are ideal, while Steadfast Believers and Balanced Visionaries offer similar alignment with slight variations.

Flexible Faithful

Communication and adaptability are important to you; you balance spiritual conviction with practical adaptability. You value communication and compromise, seeking to honor your beliefs while remaining flexible as you apply them to daily life.

Compatibility: Your balance of faith and adaptability makes you versatile. Flexible Faithful matches all profiles, but Balanced Visionaries and Pragmatic Partners complement your communication focus with mutual understanding.

Balanced Visionaries

A balanced approach to marriage. You value both traditional and modern perspectives, seeking harmony between stability and flexibility. Your responses demonstrate a deep understanding of marriage dynamics with a natural ability to adapt while maintaining your values.

Compatibility: Your balanced approach pairs well with similar mindsets. Balanced Visionaries are ideal, while Harmonious Planners and Flexible Faithful share your values with slight variations.

Individualist Seekers

A focus on personal growth and autonomy within relationships. You value independence and maintain strong boundaries and expect independence. Your approach emphasizes equality, shared decision-making, and mutual support while preserving individuality.

Compatibility: Your focus on independence connects with partners who respect personal space and autonomy are best, while Pragmatic Partners and Flexible Faithful offer complementary traits.

Pragmatic Partners

A practical, results-oriented approach to marriage with a focus on mutual respect, and shared responsibility. Your decisions are based on practicality rather than rigid ideals or traditions.

Compatibility: You prioritize practicality and communication, though some profiles may lack intensity. Pragmatic Partners are ideal, while Flexible Faithful and Individualist Seekers offer complementary traits.

Female-Specific Profiles

Relational Nurturers (Female)

As a Relational Nurturer, you have a natural ability to create emotional security and connection in relationships. You prioritize family cohesion and emotional well-being, making you an empathetic and supportive partner who creates a warm, nurturing environment.

Compatibility: Your nurturing nature thrives with a partner who values family and faith. A Faithful Protector's leadership aligns best, while Balanced Providers and Structured Leaders offer stability and structure.

Adaptive Communicators (Female)

As an Adaptive Communicator, you excel at creating understanding through clear, empathetic expression. Your approach to relationships emphasizes openness, active listening, and emotional intelligence, making you particularly skilled at navigating challenges through conversation and compromise.

Compatibility: Your communication skills pair with a partner who values clarity. Structured Leaders are ideal, while Faithful Protectors and Balanced Providers complement your faith and balance.

Faith-Centered Homemakers (Female)

As a Faith-Centered Homemaker, your faith deeply informs your approach to home and family. You create a spiritually nurturing environment and value traditions that strengthen family bonds. Your commitment to faith-based living provides stability and moral guidance to your household.

Compatibility: Your spiritual home focus thrives with a faith-driven partner. Faithful Protectors are ideal, while Balanced Providers and Structured Leaders support your family values.

Independent Traditionalists (Female)

As an Independent Traditionalist, you balance respect for tradition with personal autonomy. You value conventional relationship structures while maintaining your independence. Your approach combines the stability of traditional values with modern expectations of mutual respect.

Compatibility: Your blend of tradition and independence matches with a stable partner. Balanced Providers align best, while Faithful Protectors and Structured Leaders share your traditional values.

Male-Specific Profiles

Principled Provider (Male)

As a Principled Provider, you bring stability and structure to relationships. You are a dedicated partner and are dedicated to establishing a secure foundation for your family. Your principled approach to leadership and protection makes you an anchoring presence.

Faithful Protectors (Male)

As a Faithful Protector, you see spiritual leadership as central to your role. You provide moral guidance, security, and stability for your family. Your faith-based principles guide your decisions, and you take them seriously.

Compatibility: Your leadership and faith pair with a spiritually focused partner. Balanced Providers align best, while Relational Nurturers and Independent Traditionalists complement your approach.

Structured Leaders (Male)

As a Structured Leader, you bring organization and clarity to your family. You value planning, goal-setting, and establishing routines. Your structured approach to leadership and marriage creates a sense of security and order.

Compatibility: Your clarity and structure match with a partner who values organization. Faithful Protectors are ideal, while Relational Nurturers and Faith-Centered Homemakers complement your approach.

Intuitive Teammate (Male)

As an Intuitive Teammate, you excel at understanding your partner's needs in meaningful ways. You have a natural ability to anticipate and support your partner's goals and emotions, creating a deeply connected relationship.

Balanced Provider

As a Balanced Provider, you share the responsibility for both your own and your partner's well-being. Your approach values stability.

Compatibility: Your stability is a strength, while Faith-Centered individuals seek the best, while Faith-Centered individuals seek the best.

Note: This profile is provided to help you understand the different personality types identified by the 100 Marriage Assessment. Compatibility is based on similar values and complementary traits, but remember that awareness and communication are most important for relationship success.