Overall Assessment Score

82.3%

Understanding Your Score: Your assessment score reflects your perspective on marriage, not a judgment of readiness. Higher percentages indicate alignment with traditional marriage values, while lower percentages suggest less traditional approaches. Neither is inherently better—just different expectations.

- The most important consideration is how your assessment score compares with someone you are married to or discerning marriage with.
- The closer the percentage (with your spouse), overall, the more successful you will be.

Your Psychographic Profiles

Balanced Visionary (General Profile)

You have a thoughtful, balanced approach to marriage. You value modern perspectives, seeking harmony between stability and flexibility. Your responses show a well-rounded understanding of marriage dynamics and a strong ability to adapt while maintaining core values.

Your Gender-Specific Profile

Structured Leader (Male-Specific Profile)

As a Structured Leader, you bring organization and clarity to relationships. You value defined roles and clear communication. Your thoughtful approach to leadership means you provide stability while still valuing input from your spouse. You excel at creating systems that help marriages thrive.
