Overall Assessment Score

Understanding Your Score: Your assessment score reflects your personal values and expectations, offering a judgment of readiness. Higher percentages indicate alignment with traditional values, while lower percentages suggest less traditional approaches—just different expectations.

- The most important consideration is how your assessment aligns with the expectations of someone you are married to or discerning marriage with.

- The closer the percentage (with your spouse), overall, the more aligned your expectations will be.

Psychographic Profiles Reference Guide

This guide provides information about all psychographic profiles in the 100 Marriage Assessment system. Use it to better understand your own profile and potential compatibility with others.

Unisex Profiles

SB

Steadfast Believers

You have a strong commitment to faith as the foundation of your relationship. You value traditional marriage roles and have clear expectations for family life. Your decisions are firmly guided by your interpretation of scripture, and you're unwavering in your convictions.

Compatibility: Your strong faith and traditional values mean you'll thrive with someone who shares your spiritual commitment and family focus. Expectation alignment is highest with Steadfast Believers, but Harmonious Planners and Balanced Visionaries can complement your values if faith is discussed.

HP

Harmonious Planners

You value structure and careful planning in your relationship while maintaining strong faith values. You're committed to establishing clear expectations and boundaries in your marriage while prioritizing your spiritual foundation.

Compatibility: You value structure and faith, so you'll connect best with partners who share your planning mindset. Harmonious Planners are ideal, while Steadfast Believers and Balanced Visionaries offer similar alignment with slight variations.

FF

Flexible Faithful

While your faith is important to you, you balance spiritual conviction with practical adaptability. You value communication and compromise, seeking to honor your beliefs while remaining flexible in how you approach daily life.

Compatibility: Your balance of faith and adaptability makes you versatile. Flexible Faithful matches align best, but Visionaries and Pragmatic Partners complement your communication focus with mutual respect.

BV

Balanced Visionaries

You have a thoughtful, balanced approach to marriage. You value both tradition and modernity, seeking harmony between stability and flexibility. Your responses show a well-rounded understanding of relationship dynamics with a natural ability to adapt while maintaining core values.

Compatibility: Your balanced approach pairs well with similar mindsets. Balanced Visionaries are ideal. Planners and Flexible Faithful share your values with slight variations.

IS

Individualist Seekers

You prioritize personal growth and autonomy within relationships. While you respect traditional values, you have strong boundaries and expect independence. Your approach to marriage involves personal growth, making, and mutual support while preserving individual identity.

Compatibility: Your focus on independence connects with partners who respect autonomy. Pragmatic Partners and Flexible Faithful offer complementary practicality and adaptability.

PP

Pragmatic Partners

You approach marriage with a practical, results-oriented mindset. You value clear communication and shared responsibility. Your decisions are based on what works best for the relationship, often guided by traditions.

Compatibility: You prioritize practicality and communication, thriving with partners who share your approach. Ideal, while Flexible Faithful and Individualist Seekers align on practical aspects.
