

The 100 Marriage Assessment - Series 1

Couple Assessment Report

Michael Johnson & Sarah Williams

Couple Compatibility Score

Needs Attention

This compatibility score represents how well aligned your couple. A higher score means you have more similar views can lead to greater harmony and understanding in your relation

Relationship Insights

Strength Areas

- 1. Your Faith Life
- 2. Your Foundation
- 3. Your Finances

Areas Needing Alignment

- 1. Your Marriage Life
- 2. Your Parenting Life

Individual Assessment Scores

Michael's Profile: Harmonious Planners

Overall Score: 83.86075949367088%

Male-Specific Profile: Balanced Providers

Sarah's Profile: Balanced Visionaries

Overall Score: 72.42314647377938%

Female-Specific Profile: Faith-Centered
Homemakers

Section Score Comparison

This table shows how your scores compare in each assessment section. Larger differences may indicate areas where you have different perspectives that could benefit from discussion.

Assessment Section	Michael	Sarah	Difference
Your Foundation	93%	69%	23%
Your Faith Life	74%	79%	5%
Your Marriage Life	87%	72%	15%
Your Parenting Life	65%	73%	8%
Your Family/Home Life	79%	87%	8%
Your Finances	91%	71%	20%
Your Health and Wellness	84%	73%	11%
Your Marriage and Boundaries	83%	64%	20%

Key Differences to Discuss

These questions highlight areas where your perspectives differ. Discussing these topics can help you better understand each other's views.

1. Your Foundation: Marriage + Family Accountability - I believe in accountability for my marriage.

Michael: In view of the previous question, we are committed to living our lives together being accountable to God, His scripture and to the commitments we make through this 'life covenant' process, unless mutually revisited and discussed at a later time.

Sarah: Other: Before committing to this we need further discussion with spiritual counsel around how this would operate

2. Your Foundation: Marriage Mindset: Divorce - What is your position on divorce?

Michael: We are committed to a lifelong marriage and do not see divorce as an exercisable option for any reasons outside of biblical (adultery & abandonment) or personal safety grounds (physical abuse and professionally evaluated and validated, psychological harm), including but not limited to: Unhappiness, 'Falling Out of Love', 'Growing Apart', 'Irreconcilable Differences'

Sarah: We believe that while marriage is intended to be lifelong, divorce may be a reasonable option in a wider range of circumstances, including when personal happiness and fulfillment are severely compromised

3. Your Marriage Life: Order of Priority before God - What is your order of priority?

Michael: God, Children, Spouse, Work, Extended Family, Friends, Church, Ministry, Hobbies

Sarah: God, Work, Spouse, Children, Extended Family, Friends, Church, Ministry, Hobbies

4. Your Marriage Life: Communication & Conflict Resolution:2 (24 hours) - I believe we should not go more than 24 hours without speaking.

Michael: We do believe couples should resolve conflicts and resume communication within 24 hours

Sarah: We do not believe there should be a strict timeframe for resolving conflicts and resuming communication

5. Your Marriage Life: Dedicated Time (Fellowship) - How often do you plan to have date nights?

Michael: Bi-weekly

Sarah: Weekly

Discussion Guide: Where Your Perspectives Differ

These are the most significant areas where your answers differed. We recommend scheduling dedicated time to discuss these topics together using "The 100 Marriage" book as your guide. The book provides valuable context and discussion points that will help you align your expectations more effectively.

Top Differences to Discuss Together:

Question 2: Your Foundation: Marriage + Family Accountability - I believe in accountability for my marriage.

Michael's Response:

In view of the previous question, we are committed to living our lives together being accountable to God, His scripture and to the commitments we make through this 'life covenant' process, unless mutually revisited and discussed at a later time.

Sarah's Response:

Other: Before committing to this we need further discussion with spiritual counsel around how this would operate

Question 7: Your Foundation: Marriage Mindset: Divorce - What is your position on divorce?

Michael's Response:

We are committed to a lifelong marriage and do not see divorce as an exercisable option for any reasons outside of biblical (adultery & abandonment) or personal safety grounds (physical abuse and professionally evaluated and validated, psychological harm), including but not limited to: Unhappiness, 'Falling Out of Love', 'Growing Apart', 'Irreconcilable Differences'

Sarah's Response:

We believe that while marriage is intended to be lifelong, divorce may be a reasonable option in a wider range of circumstances, including when personal happiness and fulfillment are severely compromised

Question 10: Your Marriage Life: Order of Priority before God - What is your order of priority?

Michael's Response:

God, Children, Spouse, Work, Extended Family, Friends, Church, Ministry, Hobbies

Sarah's Response:

God, Work, Spouse, Children, Extended Family, Friends, Church, Ministry, Hobbies

Question 18: Your Marriage Life: Communication & Conflict Resolution:2 (24 hours) - I believe we should not go more than 24 hours without speaking.

Michael's Response:

We do believe couples should resolve conflicts and resume communication within 24 hours

Sarah's Response:

We do not believe there should be a strict timeframe for resolving conflicts and resuming communication

THE 100
MARRIAGE
BOOK

Use The 100 Marriage Book as Your Discussion Companion

6: Your Marriage Life: Dedicated Time (Fellowship) - How often do you plan to meet?

The book provides the perfect framework to navigate important conversations about marriage expectations and alignment. Get your copy today to strengthen your relationship.

Response:

Sarah's Response:

Weekly

Additional Key Sections for Discussion:

Section: Your Marriage Life

Walk through the questions in this section together with the book as your companion.

Section: Your Parenting Life

Walk through the questions in this section together with the book as your companion.

Don't have the book yet?

Get your copy at lawrenceadjah.com/the100marriagebook to deepen your discussions and strengthen your relationship.

Next Steps for Your Relationship

1. Review this report together and discuss the key areas of difference.
2. Focus on understanding each other's perspectives rather than trying to change them.
3. Use "The 100 Marriage" book to guide your discussions on areas needing alignment.
4. Consider scheduling a consultation with Lawrence E. Adjah for additional support.
5. Revisit the assessment after 6-12 months to track your alignment progress.

To schedule a consultation:

<https://lawrence-adjah.clientsecure.me/request/service>

(c) 2025 Lawrence E. Adjah - The 100 Marriage Assessment - Series 1