

The 100 Marriage Assessment - Series 1

Couple Assessment Report

Michael Johnson & Sarah Williams

Couple Compatibility Score

Needs Attention

This compatibility score represents how well aligned your expectations are as a couple. A higher score means you have more similar views on related topics, which can lead to greater harmony and understanding in your relationship.

Relationship Insights

Strength Areas

1. Your Family/Home Life
2. Your Finances
3. Your Health and Wellness

Areas Needing Alignment

1. Your Marriage Life
2. Your Marriage and Boundaries

Individual Assessment Scores

Michael's Profile: Harmonious Planners

Overall Score: 82.82097649186257%

Male-Specific Profile: Structured Leaders

Sarah's Profile: Balanced Visionaries

Overall Score: 79.74683544303798%

Female-Specific Profile: Faith-Centered
Homemakers

Section Score Comparison

This table shows how your scores compare in each assessment section. Larger differences may indicate areas where you have different perspectives that could benefit from discussion.

Assessment Section	Michael	Sarah	Difference
Your Foundation	88%	74%	• 14%
Your Faith Life	70%	82%	• 12%
Your Marriage Life	84%	71%	• 13%
Your Parenting Life	88%	81%	' 7%
Your Family/Home Life	89%	83%	' 6%
Your Finances	88%	99%	• 10%
Your Health and Wellness	71%	89%	• 18%
Your Marriage and Bound...	74%	83%	' 9%

Key Differences to Discuss

These questions highlight areas where you have different perspectives. Discussing these topics can help you better understand each other.

1. Your Foundation: Marriage Preparation: Legal (Estate) - What is your position on creating a will?

Michael: We're committed to preparing in advance of our marriage to ensuring we are each well cared for in the undesired, unfortunate and rare case of incapacitating illness and or premature death, as such, we are each committed to establishing completing a notarized copy of our will before our marriage date

Sarah: We do not believe creating a will is necessary before marriage and prefer to address estate planning at a later stage in our relationship

2. Your Foundation: Marriage Mindset: Divorce - What is your position on divorce?

Michael: We are committed to a lifelong marriage and do not see divorce as an exercisable option for any reasons outside of biblical (adultery & abandonment) or personal safety grounds (physical abuse and professionally evaluated and validated, psychological harm), including but not limited to: Unhappiness, 'Falling Out of Love', 'Growing Apart', 'Irreconcilable Differences'

Sarah: We believe that while marriage is intended to be lifelong, divorce may be a reasonable option in a wider range of circumstances, including when personal happiness and fulfillment are severely compromised

3. Your Foundation: Marriage Mindset: Divorce & Law - What is your position on prenuptial agreements?

Michael: We are committed to a lifelong marriage with one another and do not see divorce as an exercisable option (outside of biblical/safety circumstances), and do not believe any legal agreements beyond our mutual commitments through this life covenant process are necessary for us to explore and structure at this time.

Sarah: We are committed to a lifelong marriage with one another and do not see divorce as an exercisable option (outside of biblical/safety circumstances), still, in view of the law and the prevalent rates of marriage dissolution, we agree to explore and structure a mutually considerate prenuptial agreement for our marriage.

4. Your Marriage Life: Order of Priority before God - What is your order of priority?

Michael: God, Spouse, Children, Work, Extended Family, Friends, Church, Ministry, Hobbies

Sarah: God, Children, Spouse, Work, Extended Family, Friends, Church, Ministry, Hobbies

5. Your Faith Life: Church Community - Will you attend the same church as a family?

Michael: We're comfortable with having separate churches to attend individually and as a family.

Sarah: We're committed to finding a single church which to attend both individually and as a family.

Discussion Guide: Where Your Perspectives Differ

These are the most significant areas where your answers differed. We recommend scheduling dedicated time to discuss these topics together using "The 100 Marriage" book as your guide. The book provides valuable context and discussion points that will help you align your expectations more effectively.

Top Differences to Discuss Together:

Question 6: Your Foundation: Marriage Preparation: Legal (Estate) - What is your position on creating a will?

Michael's Response:

We're committed to preparing in advance of our marriage to ensuring we are each well cared for in the undesired, unfortunate and rare case of incapacitating illness and or premature death, as such, we are each committed to establishing completing a notarized copy of our will before our marriage date

Sarah's Response:

We do not believe creating a will is necessary before marriage and prefer to address estate planning at a later stage in our relationship

Question 7: Your Foundation: Marriage Mindset: Divorce - What is your position on divorce?

Michael's Response:

We are committed to a lifelong marriage and do not see divorce as an exercisable option for any reasons outside of biblical (adultery & abandonment) or personal safety grounds (physical abuse and professionally evaluated and validated, psychological harm), including but not limited to: Unhappiness, 'Falling Out of Love', 'Growing Apart', 'Irreconcilable Differences'

Sarah's Response:

We believe that while marriage is intended to be lifelong, divorce may be a reasonable option in a wider range of circumstances, including when personal happiness and fulfillment are severely compromised

Question 8: Your Foundation: Marriage Mindset: Divorce & Law - What is your position on prenuptial agreements?

Michael's Response:

We are committed to a lifelong marriage with one another and do not see divorce as an exercisable option (outside of biblical/safety circumstances), and do not believe any legal agreements beyond our mutual commitments through this life covenant process are necessary for us to explore and structure at this time.

Sarah's Response:

We are committed to a lifelong marriage with one another and do not see divorce as an exercisable option (outside of biblical/safety circumstances), still, in view of the law and the prevalent rates of marriage dissolution, we agree to explore and structure a mutually considerate prenuptial agreement for our marriage.

Question 10: Your Marriage Life: Order of Priority before God - What is your order of priority?

Michael's Response:

God, Spouse, Children, Work, Extended Family, Friends, Church, Ministry, Hobbies

Sarah's Response:

God, Children, Spouse, Work, Extended Family, Friends, Church, Ministry, Hobbies

Question 11: Your Faith Life: Church Community - Will you attend the same church as a family?

Use The 100 Marriage Book as Your Discussion Companion

THE 100 MARRIAGE BOOK

This book provides the perfect framework to navigate important conversations about marriage expectations and alignment. Get your copy today to strengthen your relationship. We're committed to finding a single church which to attend both individually and as a family.

Additional Key Sections for Discussion:

Section: Your Marriage Life

Walk through the questions in this section together with the book as your companion.

Section: Your Marriage and Boundaries

Walk through the questions in this section together with the book as your companion.

Don't have the book yet?

Get your copy at lawrenceadjah.com/the100marriagebook to deepen your discussions and strengthen your relationship.

Next Steps for Your Relationship

1. Review this report together and discuss the key areas of difference.
2. Focus on understanding each other's perspectives rather than trying to change them.
3. Use "The 100 Marriage" book to guide your discussions on areas needing alignment.
4. Consider scheduling a consultation with Lawrence E. Adjah for additional support.
5. Revisit the assessment after 6-12 months to track your alignment progress.

To schedule a consultation:

<https://lawrence-adjah.clientsecure.me/request/service>